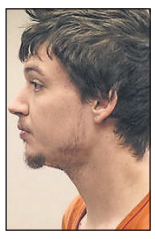
Coombs facing resisting, reckless homicide charges

Bond set at $100,000 cash

BY COLLIN OVERTON

The 19-year-old man charged with leading police on a 20-minute pursuit that ended in the death of two teenage passengers in January arrived in Jefferson County Circuit Court on Monday for his initial hearing.

Blake S. Coombs, 19, is charged with two counts of resisting law enforcement, both Level 3 felonies, and two counts of reckless homicide, both Level 5 felonies, for the Jan. 9 incident that resulted in the deaths of Tyler Cooley, 18, and Brooklyn James. 19. Circuit Court Judge D.J. Mote, conducted court via Zoom teleconferencing, entered a not-guilty plea for Coombs and left his bond at $100,000 cash.



Blake Coombs

A police affidavit indicated that on Jan. 9, 2020, at approximately 3:45 p.m., a Madison Police officer attempted to conduct a traffic stop on 2005 Toyota passenger car being driven by Coombs, who also goes by the name Blake Eisenhower.

Coombs allegedly fled from the officer northbound on State Road 7 away from Madison. Indiana State Police and the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department assisted Madison police in the pursuit and the car turned westbound on State Road 250, southbound on State Road 3, and then eastbound on State Road 256 back toward Madison.

Switzerland man held in Aurora fatal shooting

BY COURIER STAFF REPORT

A 64-year-old Switzerland County man is being held in the Dearborn County Jail after an altercation he was allegedly involved in resulted in the shooting death of a 19-year-old Aurora man on Thursday, May 28.

Robert Lee Marksberry

According to an investigation by detectives with the Indiana State Police and Aurora Police Department, Robert Lee Marksberry was involved in an altercation with Nicholas Woodruff, 19, sometime before 10 p.m. Thursday at a residence at 803 Indiana Ave., Aurora. At some point Marksberry retrieved a gun and allegedly shot Woodruff before leaving the area in a vehicle.

Woodruff was immediately transported to High Point Health in Lawrenceburg where he died from his injuries.

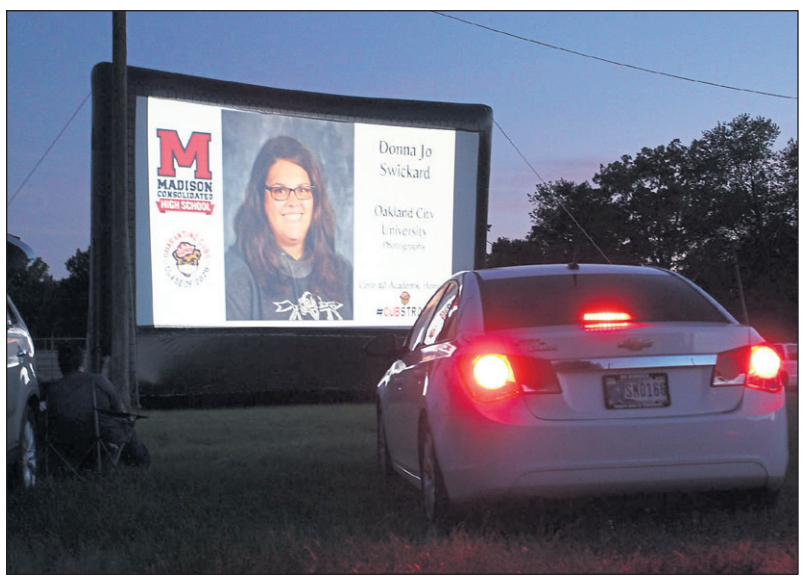
POP-UP DRIVE-IN

Families take part in movie night while staying safe

STAFF PHOTOS BY COLLIN OVERTON



Vehicles line up for the City of Madison's pop-up drive-in movie presentation Sunday at the Jefferson County 4-H Fairgrounds, where "The Greatest Showman" was the film of the evening with a pre-movie video recognizing Madison Consolidated High School seniors of 2020 with a presentation of graduates on the big outdoor screen. Sponsored by Sedam Contracting and several banks, churches and businesses, the show was postponed from Friday due to weather. "Toy Story" was shown on Saturday night with seniors from Southwestern and Shawe Memorial recognized. The film "E.T." is slated for June 20 (another MCHS senior night), "Aladdin" June 21 (another SWJHS and Shawe senior night) and "The Sandlot" on July 2. Gates open at 8 p.m. with movies starting at dusk. Admission is free. With local theaters closed due to crowd restrictions and social distancing guidelines, the pop-up, drive-in provides an opportunity for families to get out of the house for entertainment while still staying safe.

Fireworks, 5K slated for July on riverfront

BY MARK CAMPBELL

Madison's Board of Public Works gave its approval for several street closings in the city's first meeting not conducted by Zoom teleconferencing in weeks.

The Board, meeting in Council Chambers but with social distancing still being observed, approved several proposals for when social distancing requirements are expected to be relaxed even further beginning next month including a Fourth of July Fireworks show on the Ohio River and a Madison Club Wrestling 5K Run and Walk from the hilltop to Bicentennial Park on July 11.

The fireworks, previously announced but not finalized until BOPW approval, will provide a show similar to the one held annually as part of the Madison Regatta. But with no Regatta this year — the race and its Roostertail Music Festival were canceled last month due to uncertainty related to the virus emergency — the city has opted to take on the fireworks and is recruiting sponsors to help pay for the approximately $30,000 show.

The event will be on Saturday, July 4, with a rain date on Sunday, July 5, and feature the same Zambelli Fireworks as the Regatta show. The city will close Vaughn Drive from Ferry to Vernon streets as well as West Street and Central Avenue from First Street to the Ohio River for spectators.

By the time July 4 arrives, the city expects Indiana to be upgraded to Stage 5 of Gov. Eric Holcomb's Back on Track Indiana reopening plan, which would allow unlimited crowd sizes and eliminate social distancing restrictions. However, Mayor Bob Courtney said he was glad to see the entire riverfront being set aside for the event because social distancing could still be favored by some and perhaps the best option to avoid potential spread of the virus.

"By reserving all of Vaughn Drive social distancing shouldn't be a problem,"

Local governments eligible for $1.5M in coronavirus relief funds

BY COURIER STAFF REPORT

Jefferson County and its four cities and towns are eligible for more than $1.5 million in federal funding to help offset some of the costs incurred while responding to the COVID-19 emergency.

Indiana allocated $300 million in federal funding from the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economics Security Act to counties and communities for reimbursement of expenditures related to the pandemic, said State Rep. Randy Frye (R-Greensburg).

Up to $1,557,332 of that fund could be reimbursed in Jefferson County with county government eligible for up to $1,044,949 plus another $385,399 for the city of Madison, $113,877 for Hanover, $10,544 for Dupont and $2,563 for Brooksburg.

The funding, which is allocated based on population, cannot be used to replace lost tax revenue, but it can help offset some of the costs associated with responding to the crisis once local governments submit expenses for reimbursement.

"Just like many families and local businesses have seen their budgets take a hit from this public health crisis, so too have many of our local governments," Frye said. "Some of their budgets could not have prepared for the significant spending taking place to help stop the spread of this disease and thankfully, they can recoup some of these unexpected costs."

Switzerland County is eligible for $347,700 in reimbursement funding with Vevay slated to get another $53,564 and Patriot $6,650.

The Indiana Finance Authority is in charge of implementing guidelines on how each county, city and town can use the funding, as well as compiling reimbursement requests through accepted documentation including invoices. Visit in.gov/ifa for more information.

Driver, passenger sent to hospital after car hits tree in Shelby Township

BY COURIER STAFF REPORT

A North Vernon driver and his pregnant passenger were both transported to a hospital Sunday when the car they were traveling in left the roadway and struck a tree in Shelby Township.

The driver, Aaron Bender, 24, of North Vernon, sustained minor injuries when his car went off the roadway in the 9600 block of North Barbersville Road on Sunday, rolled into an embankment and struck a tree at around 7 p.m. Bender complained of pain to his rib area when Jefferson County Sheriff's officers arrived.

Bender and a woman who is six months pregnant were transported from the scene by EMS. The woman's name, her medical condition and other details were not available at press time

Jefferson County Chief Deputy Josh Taylor said Bender was cited for not having registration or insurance on the vehicle he was driving.

Trimble family escapes fire, loses home

BY COLLIN OVERTON

A Trimble County couple and their five small children escaped a fast moving fire at their home near Bedford, but lost everything in the blaze on Joyce Mills Road at about 10 a.m. Sunday.

According to Bedford Fire Department Chief William McCoy, the fire may have started in a bedroom and quickly spread throughout the home. Firefighters with Bedford, Milton Fire and Rescue, Campbellsburg Fire and Rescue and Carroll County's Westside Fire Department spent about four hours battling the flames using multiple water trucks to relay water to the location.

"When we arrived, three quarters of the house was already engulfed," McCoy said.

The blackened structure was too hot for firefighters to enter and look for causes Sunday, but McCoy said he planned meet with a Kentucky State Police arson investigator Monday to try and determine the cause.

The homeowners, Emmanuel and Brandy Maddox, are parents of five children and are expecting their sixth, said Ann Cook of Henry County Helping Hands, a nonprofit based in New Castle, Kentucky, that has reached out to help the family.

The organization is accepting donations for the family and has sizing information on each person for anyone who wants to donate clothes. For more information on how to help, call Helping Hands at 502-667-0289.

The family is also working with American Red Cross to get needed supplies and find housing, McCoy said.

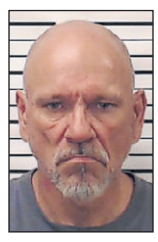
MPD makes multiple drug arrests

BY COURIER STAFF REPORT

Madison Police made two drug arrests over the weekend — both for dealing in methamphetamine and marijuana — in connection with separate cases in downtown Madison.

Cassondra S. Lockridge 22, Madison, was arrested for dealing methamphetamine, dealing marijuana, possession of methamphetamine, possession of marijuana, possession of a legend drug, maintaining a common nuisance, possession of paraphernalia, and possession of a sawed off shotgun on Friday night.

Cassondra S. Lockridge



Seth James Owen

Madison Police Department, with the assistance of the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department, executed a search warrant at Lockridge's home, 316 E. First St., based on an ongoing narcotic investigation.

The warrant, obtained for the residence by Sgt. Shawn Scudder and executed by both departments, allowed officers to seize methamphetamine, marijuana, drug paraphernalia, legend drugs and firearms.

Lockridge was lodged in the Jefferson County Jail.

Later this weekend, Madison Police arrested a Hanover man on drug possession and trafficking charges after executing a traffic stop at the Circle K convenience store in downtown Madison on Sunday night.

Madison police stopped a vehicle driven by Seth James Owen, 53, of Hanover, at 9:38 p.m. and during their search found methamphetamine, marijuana and other drugs as well as drug paraphernalia.

Owen was charged with dealing methamphetamine, dealing in a schedule 2 drug, possession of methamphetamine, dealing in marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of marijuana

Owen was lodged in the Jefferson County Jail.

Meanwhile, at 7:30 a.m. Monday, Madison Police arrested Carol J. Weaver 58, Madison, for possession of methamphetamine and maintaining a common nuisance.

In addition, six other individuals were present at Weaver's residence when police executed a search warrant and all six were charged with visiting a common nuisance including: Frank M. Hancock, 36, Madison; Steven Withrow, 43, Carrollton, Kentucky; Brooke Bayless, 20, Madison; Johnathan A. Lamb, 22, Madison; Roxanne L. Foster, 37, Ghent, Kentucky; and Samantha G. Law, 25, address unknown.

The search warrant for Weaver's Blackmore Street residence was obtained as the result of an ongoing narcotics investigation led by MPD Patrolman Brad Demaree. Officers seized methamphetamine, cell phones, and paraphernalia associated with the use of narcotics. The seven suspects were lodged in the Jefferson County Jail.

Courtney noting that will provide plenty of room for any spectators who want to remain cautious and distance socially.

The fireworks, shot from a barge in the Ohio River, will be able to be seen from a wide area on both sides of the Ohio River.

The proposed 5K race scheduled for a weekend later will begin at the Lide White Boys & Girls Club and follow the Madison Heritage Trail to downtown Madison and then along Vaughn Drive to the finish at Bicentennial Park where an awards ceremony, food trucks, live music and a beer garden will await, said Dustin Bentz, one of the organizers. Vaughn Drive will be closed from 5-7 p.m with walkers starting at 5 p.m. and runners at 6 p.m. No other streets are expected to be impacted.

Elsewhere, the first two nights of five pop-up, drive-in theater movie showings at the Jefferson County 4-H Fairgrounds were a success and two more films will be shown in June and one in July, said Community Relations Director Hannah Fagen. The movie nights are under a contact with Lightning-Bug Theatre of Lima, Ohio.

The drive-in movies were a new offering by the City of Madison as a way to provide entertainment to families while respecting social distancing since movie-goers are supposed to remain in their cars.

The drive-in movies were a new offering by the City of Madison as a way to provide entertainment to families while respecting social distancing since movie-goers are supposed to remain in their cars. The next movies slated for showing are "E.T." on Saturday, June 20 and "Aladdin" on Sunday, June 21, while The Sandlot will wrap up the series on Thursday, July 2.

Fagen said that after that the city will most likely enter into a new contract to resume its Movies in the Park series at Bicentennial Park since social distancing and crowd sizes are expected to be relaxed beginning in July.

SHOOTING

Police responded to the scene at approximately 10 p.m. after receiving a report that a person had been shot. Their investigation identified Marksberry as their suspect in the shooting and officers with the Dearborn County Sheriff's Office and Switzerland County Sheriff's Office were able to locate Marksberry at a residence near Bennington and he was taken into custody there on Friday.

Marksberry was transported to the Dearborn County Jail at 6:37 a.m. Friday where he is being held on an aggravated battery charge pending the filing of formal charges in the case.

The investigation is ongoing.

The Indiana State Police and Aurora Police Department have been assisted by the Dearborn County Sheriff's Office, Switzerland County Sheriff's Office, Ohio County Sheriff's Office, Lawrenceburg Police Department, and the Rising Sun Police Department.

Madison's Foy to run track at Indianapolis

BY DAVID CAMPBELL

Bryce Foy comes from a football family. A Hanover College football family to be precise. So when the Madison Consolidated High School senior began the process of deciding where he was going to go to college, the school down the road probably seemed like an obvious choice.

But in the end Foy made the decision that was the best for him and not only was it not going to Hanover, it wasn't for football at all.

Foy signed his National Letter of Intent to run track & field at the University of Indianapolis on Friday, ending a process that took him right down to the deadline. A standout football player at Madison, Foy had always dreamed of playing for his father at Hanover, but it was track & field that won out in the end.

"It's been a long journey, it feels like, from the start," said Foy, who's father Mike has been an assistant football coach at Hanover for more than 20 years. "I've been playing football my whole life so this has been a tough decision to give up that. It was down to Hanover and UIndy and I just decided that UIndy was the place for me."

Foy authored some of the biggest moments for Madison's football team over the past several seasons, but it was his accomplishments on the track that truly stood out. A three-time Most Valuable Sprinter for the Cubs, Foy was set to have a spectacular senior season before the COVID-19 pandemic canceled virtually the entire season.

"There is a very good chance he was going to be our Most Valuable Sprinter again this year and that would mean he would have been that for all four years," longtime Madison boys track & field coach Scott Holcroft said. "We've had some really good sprinters to come through here and for him to be a four-time winner really says something."

Running in the most competitive events in track and in one of the toughest sectionals in the state, Foy failed to win a sectional or regional title in his three years but that doesn't mean he didn't have success. He qualified for the regional a year ago and looked set up for a trip to the state finals when an injury during practice that regional week ended his season.

Foy opened this year by posting his fastest-ever time in the 60-meter dash in the Cubs' first indoor meet of the season but it proved to be his final race for the Cubs. Madison's next meet was canceled because of concerns with the COVID-19 virus and eventually the season followed.

"He was going to have a great year," Holcroft said. "He started it out so well and I really think this was the year that he was going to make it to Bloomington (for the state finals). The good thing is that he at least got to compete in a meet during his senior season. Not a lot of people can say that."

For Foy, the one-on-one competition is what drives him to track. While he loves football passionately, there is something about facing another competitor in a solo battle to see who is best.

"I feel like you get out of it what you put into it," Foy said. "Yes, you run on relays with teammates, but a lot of it is individual and however much work you put into it is how fast you're going to run. That's something that really drew me toward track."

Still, making the decision wasn't easy. He didn't decide on Indianapolis until Wednesday, bringing the decision down to the wire. However, he said his father supported him the entire way.

"He told me from the start that I could go anywhere I wanted. He took me to multiple other schools. He just didn't want me to play at a school in their conference," Foy smiled. "I went to a lot of football camps and he just wanted me to go to where I felt at home."

Foy said he's thinking about majoring in either exercise science or business but hasn't decided yet. He's just excited to be able to get back on the track.

"It's been rough not having my senior year but this is great," Foy said. "I just know that I have four more years of getting to run so, that's good to know."

Keselowski gets 2nd win of the season at Bristol

BY JENNA FRYER
AP AUTO RACING WRITER

BRISTOL, Tenn. — Brad Keselowski has a new crew and is fighting for a new contract at Team Penske. His confidence is still intact and he's convinced he can compete for a championship this year.

Brad Keselowski

Being in the right place at the right time is helping.

Keselowski inherited his second win in a week when the leaders crashed in front of him with a lap remaining Sunday at Bristol Motor Speedway. He won the Coca-Cola 600 seven nights ago at Charlotte Motor Speedway when a caution with two laps remaining helped him get to victory lane.

"I felt like I was in Las Vegas," Keselowski said about the Bristol win. "I went from having a bad hand to a full house real quick."

The victory dropped into Keselowski's lap when Chase Elliott and Joey Logano collided as they raced for the win. Keselowski was third with a lap and a turn remaining when opportunity opened. Logano cleared Elliott for the lead with three to go, but Elliott stalked him while seeking his second win in three days.

They made contact in the fourth turn and drifted into the wall as Keselowski slid past. He had just one trip around the 0.533-mile concrete bullring to close the victory.

"We were in position and able to strike when it counted," Keselowski said. "Joey and Chase got together there. I don't know what all caused it, but we were just in position to strike and here we are in victory lane."

MLB players offer 114-game season, no more pay cuts

BY RONALD BLUM
AP BASEBALL WRITER

NEW YORK — Major League Baseball players ignored claims by clubs that they need to take additional pay cuts, instead proposing they receive a far higher percentage of salaries and commit to a longer schedule as part of a counteroffer to start the coronavirus-delayed season.

Players proposed a 114-game regular season Sunday, up from 82 in management's offer, a person familiar with the plan told The Associated Press. Done that way, the World Series could extend past Thanksgiving.

The person spoke to the AP on condition of anonymity because no details were announced.

Opening day would be June 30 and the regular season would end Oct. 31, nearly five weeks after the Sept. 27 conclusion that MLB's proposal stuck to from the season's original schedule. The union offered scheduling flexibility to include more doubleheaders as baseball crams the games into 123 days, leaving little room for days off.

MLB's proposal Tuesday would lower 2020 salaries from about $4 billion to approximately $1.2 billion. The union's offer would have salaries total about $2.8 billion.

The plan was given to MLB during an 80-minute digital meeting among Commissioner Rob Manfred, deputy commissioner Dan Halem, union head Tony Clark and union chief negotiator Bruce Meyer. The meeting was contentious, a person familiar with it said.

Jefferson County reports 2 new cases of coronavirus

Indiana reports 9 more deaths

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

INDIANAPOLIS — Two more positive cases of COVID-19 were reported in Jefferson County, where results have now been returned on 1,379 tests overall — since Friday.

Meanwhile, nine more Indiana residents have died from COVID-19 since Sunday, while nearly 300 additional Hoosiers have been diagnosed with the respiratory disease caused by the coronavirus, state health officials said Monday.

A total of 1,976 Hoosiers are confirmed to have died from COVID-19, including one previously deemed as probable that was later lab-confirmed, the Indiana State Department of Health said.

Another 166 people have died from probable infections of COVID-19 and those deaths increase Indiana's confirmed or presumed COVID-19 deaths to 2,142 since the state's first death was recorded on March 15.

The 292 newly reported Indiana cases of the virus bring to 34,830 the total number of Indiana residents known to have it, the department said.

To date, 265,896 tests for the virus have been reported to the department, up from 261,546 on Sunday.

Hoosiers who have symptoms of COVID-19 and those who have been exposed and need a test to return to work are encouraged to visit a state-sponsored testing site for free testing. Also encouraged to get tested are individuals without symptoms who are at high risk because they are over age 65, have diabetes, obesity, high blood pressure or another underlying condition, as well as those who are pregnant, live with a high-risk individual or are a member of a minority population that is at greater risk for severe illness.

For most people, the coronavirus causes mild or moderate symptoms, such as fever and cough that clear up in two to three weeks. For some, especially older adults and people with existing health problems, it can cause more severe illness or death.

passenger, were fatally injured in the crash and both were pronounced dead at the scene by the Jefferson County Coroner's Office.

Coombs, meanwhile, was airlifted from the scene to the University of Louisville Hospital trauma center where he was treated for serious injuries.

While hospitalized, blood tests showed Coombs had controlled substances and marijuana in his system at the time of the crash. Coombs also was unlicensed at the time of the crash.

At the conclusion of the investigation, Jefferson Circuit Court issued a warrant for Coombs for the same charges he faced Monday afternoon. Officers served the warrant May 11. Coombs has been held at the Pendleton Juvenile Correctional Facility on an unrelated charge since being released from the hospital following the crash.

Coombs could serve up to 44 years in prison based on the maximum sentence for all four felonies. Resisting law enforcement carries a sentence range of from three to 16 years while the range for reckless homicide is from one to six years, Mote said.

However, the usual sentence is nine years for resisting law enforcement and three years for reckless homicide, meaning Coombs could serve a sentence closer to 24 years. Each charge also carries a fine up to $10,000, Mote added.

Coombs is expected to appear in court at 2 p.m. on Aug. 12 for his pre-trial hearing. A jury trial is set for 9 a.m. on Sept. 1.

Happiness takes work, not quick fixes

ANNIE LANE
DEAR ANNIE

Dear Annie: My husband and I have been married for 43 years. I have a good life, or so I thought. I recently found out that he has had an affair. When I asked him about it, he told me that it was only for eight months. And he said the reason was because I would not initiate sex. Ha, that is a two-way street. Anyway, I did some checking and found out that it was for two years. He has seen her on Christmas and New Year's Eve. And he even met with her on OUR anniversary. Then I found out that he went to see her a few hours after I had major lung surgery.

He has cried and told me how sorry he is. And how dumb he was for doing this. Every day since I found this out, he has said he is sorry. But here is my problem. First, he lent her some money — not much, but $400, and she paid back $100. He has been calling her wanting the rest. I found out he called her, and he told me yes, he wants his money. I told him to forget it.

Second, he has had back surgery three times. The last one left him with numbness and weakness in both legs. And he now has some kind of erectile dysfunction. So I am wondering if he stopped seeing her to come to me so I can take care of him. We have had sex, but he is different somehow. It is not the same as it used to be, and it really makes me wonder.

How do I get over this feeling that he may still be seeing her and talking to her? I found a burner phone with her number on it. I broke it.

I don't want to go to counseling. Just some easy steps to get over all this garbage. — Sucker-Punched in Indiana

Dear Sucker-Punched in Indiana: It's time to start punching back. Not literally, of course, but through your actions. You might not want to go to counseling, but you really don't have a choice — for your sake, not his. Your husband has treated you very unfairly, and you deserve better. Trust your gut. If you feel that things are different, then chances are things are different.

Different can be OK. While change is scary, it can also be wonderful for transformation. But you have to do the work. Figure out what makes you happy and what you want out of life. Hopefully, through therapy, you can learn to forgive your louse of a husband for what he did and move on — with him or without him. In the end, that will be your decision. But in the meantime, it is very important for you to focus on yourself.

Sadly, there is no quick fix, but if you do the emotional work each day, you will get better and better. Eventually, you will be so far removed from the feelings that he has inflicted on you that you will wonder how someone as wonderful as you ever dealt with a partner who lied and betrayed you.

Dreadful 'dear'

Dear Annie: Why do strange men call women "dear" as they get a little older?

I am in my late 60s but don't consider myself an "old lady." I dress reasonably — nice jeans/pants and a cute top. My hair is not gray, and I do not look sickly.

Yes, I have a few wrinkles, but I still feel proud of my appearance. I am not these guys' mother, wife or sweetheart. I am a complete stranger.

I have been called "dear" by cashiers, EMTs, a male dentist and others. Many women do not take this as a compliment. In fact, it is a little demeaning. When I very politely mentioned this to a couple of men, I was met with silence or a look of disbelief. Hopefully, some of these guys will see your column. Thanks for letting me vent. — Don't Call Me "Dear"

Dear Don't Call Me "Dear": You assume that "dear" is a term reserved for elderly women, when I always thought it was a term of endearment (pardon the pun) for all ages. I see the intention being key in these circumstances. Are these speakers being courteous or condescending? I'm curious to hear from other readers on this subject. When a stranger calls you "dear," are you complimented or insulted?

ANNIE LANE
DEAR ANNIE

Dear Annie: In these days of the coronavirus, I have been occupied by going through some paperwork that my mother and I have saved. We found this poem by Bruce Wilmer, which was written in 1978. I wanted to share it with your readers because it is just as appropriate now as it was 42 years ago.

'NEW BEGINNINGS'

Each chapter that is ending
Leads us to a new beginning
The past that we are leaving
Means a future we are winning
Each change that fills the present
Sets the stage for our tomorrow
And how we meet each challenge
Helps determine joy or sorrow
In every new beginning
Spirit plays a vital part
We must approach tomorrow
With a strong and steady heart
So as we turn the corner
Let's all apprehension shed
And fill our heart with confidence
As we proceed ahead
— Bruce B. Wilmer (1978)

Dear Reader: Thank you for sending this poem. It is very uplifting, and, as you say, it is still timely.

STATE OF INDIANA
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
JEFFERSON COUNTY
SS:
COUNTY OF JEFFERSON
CAUSE NO. 39C01-2005-AD-00016
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION OF
PAISLEY GRACE BEAR,
Minor Child,
CHARLES MICHAEL MILLER
Petitioner,

NOTICE TO UNNAMED FATHER

The unnamed father of the child born to Rebecca Sue Miller (Bear) on April4, 2013, or the person who claims to be the father of the child born to Rebecca Sue Miller (Bear) on April 4, 2013 is notified that a petition for adoption of the child was filed on the 13th day of May, 2020 in the office of the Clerk of the Jefferson Circuit Court, 300 East Main Street, Room 203, Madison, Indiana 47250.
If the unnamed putative father seeks to contest the adoption of the child, the unnamed putative father must file a motion to contest the adoption in accordance with IC 31-19-10-1 in the above named court within thirty (30) days after the date of service of this notice. This notice may be served by publication.
If the unnamed putative father does not file a motion to contest the adoption within thirty (30) days after service of this notice, the above named court shall hear and determine the petition for adoption. The unnamed putative father's consent irrevocably implied and the unnamed putative father loses the right to contest both the adoption or the validity of the unnamed putative father's implied consent to the adoption. The unnamed putative father loses the right to establish paternity of the child under IC 31-14.
Nothing Rebecca Sue Miller (Bear) or anyone else says to the unnamed putative father of the child relieves the unnamed putative father of his obligation under this notice.
Under Indiana law, a putative father is a person who is named as or claims that he may be the father of a child born out of wedlock but who has not yet been legally proven to be the child's father.
This notice complies with IC 31-19-4-4 but does not exhaustively set forth the unnamed putative father's legal obligations under the Indiana adoption statutes. A person being served with this notice should consult the Indiana adoption statutes.
The name and address of the attorney for the Petitioners is Devon M. Sharpe of Jenner & Pattison, 508 East Main Street, Madison, Indiana, 47250, Telephone: (812) 265-5132.
Dated at Madison, Indiana, this 20th day of May, 2020.
